Congregational Church and Parish in West Boxford

Dear Friends: The call to become your pastor has been duly extended to me through your joint committee and I have carefully and prayerfully considered it. Although I profoundly appreciate the honor you have conferred upon me I feel constrained not to accept it. This decision has been reached after due deliberation. I must not keep you waiting longer for my reply.

I have been open to conviction and at no time have I been led to feel it my duty to take up pastoral work among you. I regret this decision all the more because I am exceedingly desirous for a pastorate but I have left the determination of the matter entirely to the leading of our Lord the Great Head of the Church. Had he made it appear to me to be my duty, I should have accepted your hearty and earnest invitation. Sincerely hope that without much further delay the Lord will find among you a faithful undershepherd.

Wishing you grace mercy and peace.

Fraternally yours in the Gospel

Under Article 8 the following communication was read from Rev. H. Arthur Scudder:

West Pittsford Mass. Apr. 2-01.

To the Second Parish
West Pittsford Mass.

My dear friends:

Permit me to offer this word of suggestion for your consideration. Why is it not the only thing to do, at this hour in our lives together to place our parish finances upon a business basis; to do so receipts must equal expenditures: bills coming due should find a treasury prepared to pay them. I thank you for the prompt monthly payment of my salary. I think your pastor, organist, sexton and the singers would appreciate a similar promptness of payment. That they must wait a full year for their pay is not in harmony with these day business methods. A vote might be taken to supplement the returns from the fund some system by which to make certain sufficient and equitable the needful amount would seem most desirable. Why not appoint a collector of funds. Then let him or her interview all the persons in our parish. giving all by such an opportunity to help support the Church work with such amount as they shall desire from one penny to one hundred per week. as they should elect. Place the name on a roll with its number. and a single space opposite. to represent the Sundays of the year. Provide each with dated envelopes enough for all the Sundays of the year bearing only the number which appears on the roll with the persons name.

As these weekly offerings when appropriate envelope are dropped into the collection box on Sunday. the collector is able to place a cross in the corresponding space of the roll and the account is balanced. A postal to delinquent at proper time will call attention to the Church need for prompt payment. Let Everybody be invited to help. The method is simple kindly and effective.
One hundred persons contributing a weekly average of ten cents each would if taken correctly, meet all present annual expenses. Also the per suggested addition, equal pay one hundred dollars per year. toward the refunding of the four hundred dollars debt.

In my letter of acceptance of your call to this Episcopate, I spoke about an increase of the stipend you pay your rector. I should like to have you, for the coming year and those which may follow, make your salary one thousand dollars. When it is only eight hundred dollars I am persuaded that you are able to do this without any one being asked to make a sacrifice and that you would be benefited by such a release especially in the work of my successor. The cost of my living upon you certainly demands it. I find from what I know of salaries paid by other churches in your class or higher classes, it would not be an excessive remuneration for services rendered. I shall welcome from you or at this time in writing or from your delegates any interesting suggestions as to ways of improvement, in work or methods: also any kindly criticism. I came here to work for you and your church: to serve the spiritual interests of your parish:
to stand firmly and fearlessly for your welfare and rightly. Collectively, parish and church. I hope for your fullest individual cooperation. I shall welcome any of you at any appropriate time, to counsel, for better mutual understanding between us as individuals you and me: not about others. and any righteous correction of my errors. I request from you at any time it may seem best to you that our present official relations ought be terminated. in good faith I return to the duty of prayer.

With Christian love and sincere pastoral regard.

F. A. Sanborn.

Voted To increase the salary of Rev. F. Arthur Sanborn from eight hundred to one thousand dollars per year.

Voted To choose a committee of three to carry into effect the suggestion of Rev. F. A. Sanborn in regard to raising necessary funds.

Chose. Olivia M. Anderson.

Voted That the Cemetery Committee be authorized to use the funds at present in their hands, namely forty one dollars toward the purchase of said land.

Dear Friends: When I accepted the joint call of the Church and the Parish to become the Pastor of your Church it was at a yearly salary of $800. After living here seven months I find numerous reasons why I especially for me to ask for an increase of salary. In the first place the present salary does not for the work required in such a parish. As you know many connected with the Church live at a distance; such being the case I must soon provide some means of transportation to get around the parish. Further in these days different methods of Church work required for the young folk, in particular, and for the Church in general, make calls upon the pocket book of the pastor, such as the Lenten, Mission, Easter and Whitsuntide, all little sums, but I ought to give my best for the work here. In the second place I came prayerfully to live in Wakefield, there are some other towns, but my first impression that a salary which would be sufficient there would not be sufficient here.

For these reasons I trust you will grant my request, thanking you for the kindly welcome you have given me to your home, and for the support in Church work.

Yours faithfully,
(Rev.) Taylor.

Report of the Organ Committee of the Second Congregational Church
West Boxford

It is with great pleasure that the Organ Committee makes its final report to the parish.

Our organ was built by Woodbury and Harris about 1880 and is an excellent example of the American Tracker Organ of the period. Many of these organs have been rebuilt and electrified, and thus have lost their identity historically and also some of their quality. It was felt by the committee, after consulting several organ builders, that the Andover Organ Company, with their reputation and knowlege of the tracker organ, could do the best job for us, since the committee wished to retain the original features of the organ.

We received a proposal from the Andover Organ Company which included rebuilding, restoring and revoicing the organ, as well as replacing a large majority of the existing pipes, and tuning, to cost $3,140.00.

A drive was conducted which resulted in the receipt of 64 pledges totaling $3,240.00. Beyond this, our organist, Mr. Lewis Hull, offered to have some work done on the foot pedals which was not included in the contract, at a cost of $40.00.

A contract was entered into with the Andover Organ Company, and work was started as soon as the pipes arrived from Holland.

The work of restoring and revoicing this very fine instrument was completed in 1961. At that time, since the pledges had been made on a three year basis, it was necessary to obtain $367.21 to pay the final bill. This amount was forwarded by the Parish.

On November 23, 1962 the final committment was made to the Parish and as of this date there is a balance of $56.29 in the organ fund and $45 remaining to be paid on the pledges. $100 ... in ...

The committee wishes to express its appreciation to the many who helped in the fulfillment of this project.

Approval was voted at the special meeting to proceed with this two-step restoration program. A special committee was set up to raise the necessary funds.

Step A, items 1 - 4, were put out to bid. The successful contractor, based on minimum price, was Belleau Metal Works, Salem, Mass., church renovation specialists with over 70 years of experience. Item 5 of Step A was undertaken by the Parish Committee with major assistance from Kenneth H. Chadwick.

To date, Belleau Metal Works has completed removal of the old spire and bell, and painted the metal roof. Work by Kenneth Chadwick and the Parish Committee is well underway.

The spire was removed as carefully as possible. Special braces were installed by the contractor to prevent collapse of the spire so that it would be removed intact. The intent was to save as much of the spire, in expectation that it could be rebuilt on the ground. However, a close inspection of the condition of the removed spire showed that both the top and bottom of the spire was rotted and most of the rafters were badly decayed due to water leaks. As diagnosed by the experts, it was beyond repair and had to be disposed of. The bell and weathervane have been stored until Step B is undertaken.

The above work was finished and the sanctuary was also painted.
